

SOME QUESTIONS.

1. For you, what is it to work?
2. Do you enjoy to work?
3. When did you become aware of this reality called “WORK”?
4. Did you have bad working experiences?
5. Did you have positive working experiences?
6. What would they be your ideal working conditions?
7. What do you think the work serves for?
8. If you would have to explain to your son or daughter what it is to work. What would you tell him/her?
9. How many jobs did you have in your lifetime?
10. Which of those did you enjoy better?
11. What job would you like to have done apart from your actual job?
12. Did you consider yourself well paid?
13. What is it your actual job?
14. What conditions of your actual job would you like to change?
15. Do you feel a fortunate person in your working life?
16. What does it suggest you the concept of “working ethics”?
17. Have you ever witnessed cases of mobbing, excessive working hours, abusive low salaries, lost of working esteem, etc?
18. Why do you think so often alienation and work go side by side?
19. Have you experienced in the working realm moments, situations or glances of creativity?
20. What do you think would it be the effect on individuals and society some conditions of work based on the esteem of individuals, working rights and ethics as essential principles?
21. What makes that some people finally end up hating their jobs?
22. If you could chose. Could you chose not to work?

23. What is it the job of the man? What is it the job of mankind?

24. Why something so human as the work is, it is so inhuman in many countries?